ABOUT THIS REPORT

Scope & Method

This report forecasts US polypropylene film demand in pounds to 2018. Total demand is segmented by market in terms of:

- food packaging
- nonfood packaging
- secondary packaging.

To illustrate historical trends, total polypropylene film demand is provided in an annual series from 2003 to 2013; the various segments are reported at five-year intervals for 2008 and 2013.

This report quantifies trends in various measures of growth. Growth (or decline) expressed as an average annual growth rate (AAGR) is the least squares growth rate, which takes into account all available datapoints over a period. Growth calculated as a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) employs, by definition, only the first and last datapoints over a period. The CAGR is used to describe forecast growth, defined as the expected trend beginning in the base year and ending in the forecast year. Readers are encouraged to consider historical volatility when assessing particular annual values along the forecast trend, including in the forecast year.

Key macroeconomic indicators are also provided. Other various topics, including profiles of pertinent leading suppliers, are covered in this report. A full outline of report items by page is available in the Table of Contents.
