ABOUT THIS REPORT

Scope & Method

This report forecasts US wax demand in US dollars at the manufacturers' level to 2019.

Total demand is segmented by type in terms of:

- petroleum and mineral
- synthetic
- natural.

Total demand is also segmented by market as follows:

- industrial
- consumer and commercial.

To illustrate historical trends, total demand in pounds is provided in an annual series from 2004 to 2014; the various segments are reported in dollars at five-year intervals for 2009 and 2014.

This report quantifies trends in various measures of growth. Growth (or decline) expressed as an average annual growth rate (AAGR) is the least squares growth rate, which takes into account all available datapoints over a period. Growth calculated as a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) employs, by definition, only the first and last datapoints over a period. The CAGR is used to describe forecast growth, defined as the expected trend beginning in the base year and ending in the forecast year. Readers are encouraged to consider historical volatility when assessing particular annual values along the forecast trend, including in the forecast year.

Key macroeconomic indicators are also provided at five-year intervals with CAGRs for the years corresponding to other reported figures. Other various topics, including profiles of pertinent leading suppliers, are covered in this report. A full outline of report items by page is available in the Table of Contents.
