This Freedonia study reviews the $8.7 billion US commercial window and door market. It presents historical demand data (2007, 2012, 2017) and forecasts for 2022 by material (metal, plastic, wood), market (new commercial, commercial replacement), product (windows, doors, replacement components, other window & door), and US geographic region (Northeast, Midwest, South, West). The study also evaluates company market share and analyzes major players such as Andersen, Apogee Enterprises, Arconic (Kawneer), ASSA ABLOY, CRH (Oldcastle BuildingEnvelope), and Sanwa Holdings.
